JAT – Janela Aberta Teatro launches an OPEN CALL to companies and artists, in the various areas of the Physical Theatre, who wish to present their work at the second edition of MOMI - International Physical Theatre Festival - Algarve 2023, which will take place from the 22nd to the 28th of May 2023, in the city of Faro.

With the objective of contributing to the development of Physical Theatre in Portugal and with the strong will and conviction to create new spaces for contact between creators, artists, programmers and the community and responding to the desires of a sector in full evolution, the MOMI - International Physical Theatre Festival - Algarve was born.

After the success of the first edition, we continue to pursue the same goals with the certainty of the impact and potential of this Festival among creators, programmers and audiences.

The Festival will feature shows and workshops in the area of Physical Theatre, with national and international artists, in indoor and outdoor spaces, conventional and unconventional rooms, breaking barriers of access. The workshops will be aimed at students, artists and the public in general (adults, adolescents and children), where methodologies of various genres, styles and theatrical languages will be used.

MOMI - International Physical Theatre Festival - Algarve is an event organized by JAT – Janela Aberta Teatro, under the artistic direction and curatorship of Miguel Martins Pessoa and Diana Bernedo.

OPEN CALL

MOMI - International Physical Theatre Festival - Algarve seeks to bring to the Portuguese cultural panorama a high-quality artistic offer, both nationally and internationally, from established companies and/or innovative projects on the rise whilst also becoming a space for opportunity for emerging contemporary artistic creation in this field and sharing of international practices.

In this sense, OPEN CALL consists of selecting projects, based on the submitted proposals, which correspond to the following conditions:

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

This call is open to national and international companies/artists, existing in the cultural scene or emerging in the field of Physical Theatre, to present a performance/show, in one of the representation spaces, as an integral part of the programme of MOMI - International Physical Theatre Festival - Algarve.

The proposed performance/show must be an original creation, with a minimum duration of 40 minutes and a maximum duration of 90 minutes.

Candidates' projects must request simplified technical production logistics. Proposals with production autonomy will be valued.
